[OFFICIAL.]

FROM SECRETARY STANTON TO GEN. DIX.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Oct. 3.

A dispatch from Gen. SHERIDAN, dated at Harrisonburgh, October 1., 9:30 P. M., has been received by this Department. It states: "I have been to Staunton and Waynesborough with the Cavalry; destroyed the iron bridge on South River at Waynesborough, throwing it into the river; also the bridge near Christiana Creek, and the railroad from Staunton to Waynesborough." Details of future operations are, for obvious reasons, omitted.

The following dispatch is the latest received from Gen. GRANT:

CITY POINT, Oct. 2—8:30 P. M.

Maj.-Gen. H. W. Halleck, Chief of Staff:

BUTLER on the right of the James River, and MEADE southwest of Petersburgh, occupy the same positions as yesterday.

There has been but very little fighting to-day.

A few prisoners have been captured.

Last evening BUTLER sent two brigades of infantry, with a little cavalry, within a few hundred yards of the inner line of works east of Richmond, meeting with no opposition.

U. S. GRANT, Lieutenant-General.

No dispatches have been received for three days from Gen. SHERMAN, but vigorous measures, which it is believed will be successful, have been taken by him to protect his communications from the rebel raiding parties under WHEELER and FORREST.

EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

DEATALS OF THE FIGHTING.

The Rebels Attack the Eighteenth Corps—They are Repulsed with Fearful Loss—Heavy Rains—Gen. Stannard Wounded.

From Our Special Correspondent.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE JAMES, Saturday, Oct. 1, 1864—A. M.

For purely military reasons there was no disposition yesterday, on the part of Gen. BUTLER, to advance the lines of his army, and the day might have passed uneventfully, had not the enemy assumed the offensive. Galled almost to desperation by the sudden advantage we have won—an advantage which gives us a position almost within the purlieus of the rebel capital—LEE moved up heavy reinforcements from the Petersburgh front to oppose us. These reinforcements were composed of HETH'S, HOKE'S and FIELD'S divisions, and WILLCOX'S brigade.

At about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, they made an impetuous attack upon the right of the Eighteenth Corps, opposite the fortification which was taken from them on Thursday, in the hope of driving us out. Formed in three long lines they advanced to the charge, and were met by a murderous fire which sent them staggering back, leaving piles of dead and dying on the field. Rallying again, they renewed the onset, and with such determination that their advance came within two hundred yards of the work. Our men again succeeded in repulsing them, and the slaughter was terrible. Major-Gen. WEITZEL, who had only taken command of the Eighteenth Corps a few hours before the assault, signally inaugurated his assumption of the position, in the result of this affair. As the broken columns, paralyzed by the shock of their reception, fled back to gain the shelter of their works, he promptly pushed forward a flanking force which managed to cut off the retreat of nearly three hundred of the panic-stricken men, and they swooped them in like fish into a net. Five battle-flags were also captured. Among the prisoners were eighteen commissioned officers, and last night they were brought to these headquarters on their way to the rear. These officers, many of whom are veterans, unite in saying that they never before experienced such a destructive musketry fire. Our men did not fall into the common practice of firing high and harmless by over the heads of their assailants, but almost every bullet brought down a man, and the ground was strewn with victims to their unerring aim. On our part little artillery was used, but the rebels kept up an incessant fire of big guns during the assaut, not alone from the forts, but likewise from their iron-clads in the James, near Drewry's Bluff. The left division of the Tenth Corps was partially engaged in this affair, but the brunt of it fell upon the Eighteenth.

Our casualities were comparatively small, necessarily so as we were behind our works. I am grieved to say, however, that we had another brave general put hors du combat. A fragment of shell struck Gen. STANNARD, commanding the first division of the Eighteenth Corps, in the left arm, making amputation necessary.

The clouds boded rain all day and about 6 o'clock it came in torrents. So it continued all night, and this morning it gives no sign of abatement. Almost everybody is drenched and mud is redundant. Fortunately for those of us at Gen. BUTLER'S Headquarters the horrors of the flood were alleviated by a lucky "find" of the General in propria persona. Riding along his lines he entered an out of the way path which led to what was recently a rebel camp. It bore evidences of having been hurriedly abandoned by its late occupants, as their personal effects, for the most part, were left behind. Col. DODGE, Chief Quartermaster, who has an appetite for making everybody comfortable, seized this property and brought the tents to the pine grove where, on Thursday night, we bivouacked, shelterless, on dry leaves. Here he pitched as many as were necessary, and, forgetful of native fastidiousness, everybody benefitted last night, and is likely to benefit to-day, by the protection which this stained, mildewed, vermin-suggestive camp equippage of the rebels affords.

AFFAIRS ON SATURDAY.

SATURDAY EVENING, Oct. 1, 1864.

The rain has not ceased all day, and the effect upon the roads is bad. Evidently these Virginians have had little time these late years to spend upon repairing their highways, and as a consequence they are full of what a cockney in camp calls "ills and oles." The hills, as with truth some of the elevated places in the road may be designated, are reeking with a pasty red mud, making foothold for horses precarious, and clogging the wheels of supply wagons till the spokes are nearly invisible. The holes are sloughs of liquified earth into which the poor and patient and enduring mules and team horses enter with a splash, then plunge forward, every sinew straining and every nerve quivering, as they draw the floundering wagons, which sink to the hub, groaning and grating over the harsh cobble stones in the unseen depths. But the traveling might get worse, and as a preventive the Engineer Corps are engaged in corduroying and repairing generally. So much I observed to-day in the course of a ten-mile ride, upon which I set out encased in oil-skin, and returned in the same, plus an outer casing of mud dried brown. But this weather is very jolly, and nobody cares a rush about it, excepting for the dumb animals. In fact, it is somewhat jolly, after one becomes accustomed to wearing wet clothes, sleeping in damp blankets, dragging around muddy boots, and indulging generally id the other easily-imagined creature comforts which may be classed in the same category.

A few prisoners were taken to-day on our right. Some of them were merchants in Richmond until our irruption on Thursday morning. Then they rushed themselves into an improvised cavalry force—it is a weakness I have observed on the part of minute-men to get into the saddle—and took to independent scouting. Their career as gallant troopers was brief and somewhat inglorious. One of them innocently asked if the United States Government would reimburse him for the loss of his horse and equipments. The benighted individual was told that the rebel exchequer must meet his claims, if justice was ever done him. His answer was true, though profone. "That be d—d," he said; "the Confederate Government never pays."

One of the prisoners was a man named LIBBY, who has had a good deal to do with the infamous prison which bears his name. He had the sutlership of the prisoners, and from all accounts bled them freely, growing rich enough upon his extortions to purchase a fine farm upon this line of operations. LIBBY narrated, with glee to-day, that in one of our cavalry raids a trooper came to his house and carried off a gun which was lying on a box wherein he had $1,700 in gold. The gold was overlooked, and the gun went off.

Some refugees also came in to-day. They confirm the accounts of confusion in Richmond: non-combatants clearing out, all business ended, every male fifteen years of age and over in the defences of the city. All the Richmond journals have suspended publication, and, for a time at least, your readers will be spared their high-toned articles.

Gen. TERRY'S Division of the Tenth Corps made a reconoissance in force this afternoon on the Central Road, advancing up to the toll-gate, within plain view of the City of Richmond. After feeling the strength of the enemy the force returned to camp about 9 o'clock this evening, bringing in a few prisoners. When the gallant division arrived in camp there was great cheering to welcome them.

It is said by prisoners that LEE commands personally at this front.

A telegram has just reached camp, stating that the hospital steamer Matilda was destroyed this afternoon by the explosion of her boiler. No particulars were given.

Heavy Firing on the Right and Left of Petersburgh—The Entire Army in Motion—Rebel Prisoners and Deserters.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Oct. 3.

Passengers who left City Point yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, state that at that time there was heavy firing on the right and left of Petersburgh, but very little in the front.

The entire army was in motion and the indications were that a general engagement was meditated.

A steamer had arrived with a load of prisoners from the James River.

Forty deserters from the rebel army arrived here this morning. They have taken the oath of allegiance and are on their way North.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Sunday, Oct. 2.

The enemy attacked the division of Gen. AYRES yesterday morning and were repulsed with heavy loss.

This was the only fighting which took place on the left yesterday, with the exception of an attack by WADE HAMPTON'S cavalry on Gen. GREGG'S cavalry on the Vaughan road, when the rebels were driven back with a good deal of loss, and we captured some prisoners. Our loss was very slight.

The army is now strongly intrenched, and a battle may occur at any moment.

Our loss on Friday is not yet definitely ascertained, but it will not vary much from what I stated in yesterday's letter.

The enemy claim to have a number of prisoners from the Ninth Corps on that day.

The Richmond papers boast of a victory over SHERIDAN in the Valley, and say that he was retreating.

Our troops took some thirty prisoners yesterday, among whom is a Lieutenant on Gen. BENHAM'S Staff.

A heavy rain-storm has prevailed all day, and prevented movements to any considerable extent.

W. D. McGREGOR.

FORTRESS MONROE, Sunday, Oct. 2, via BALTIMORE, Monday, Oct. 3.

The mail boat Webster, from City Point, has arrived here.

The rumor that Petersburgh has been evacuated by the rebels is incorrect.

Heavy firing has been heard all this morning from the north side of the James River, but nothing important has been received as to results.

Rebel fugitives of all classes are pouring into Bermuda Hundred in every conceivable manner. Some are coming down the river on rafts, in their eagerness to escape from the perils of the Confederacy.

Rebel officers, now prisoners in our hands, say that they think Richmond cannot much longer withstand the siege now in progress.

All here are full of hopes of success.

Our soldiers are in high spirits, expecting soon to achieve the greatest results.

List of Wounded Officers Received at Fortress Monroe—Deaths in Hospital.

Arrival of Gen. Stannard, Wounded—Gen. Burnham's Body Embalmed.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Oct. 3.

The mail boat to-day from City Point brought to Washington Gen. STANNARD, commanding the First Division of the Eighteenth Corps, who lost his right arm in the recent engagement. Four of his aids were also wounded, among them Capt. KEMP and Lieut. HUBBELL.

The body of Gen. BURNHAM, who was killed at Chapin's Farm, has been embalmed, preliminary to its transmission to Maine.

LATER FROM MEMPHIS.

Attack on Gunboat No. 30—The Mississippi Legislature—Sherman Strongly Fortifying Atlanta—Movements of Admiral Porter.

CAIRO, Ill., Monday, Oct. 3.

The steamer Belle has arrived here with Memphis papers of the 30th of September, which contain Duvall's Bluff dates of the 22d.

Gunboat No. 30 was attacked at the foot of Little Island by guerrillas on both sides of the river. The gunboat shelled them and killed eight or ten.

The steamer Kenton was fired into below Clarendon, on the White River, and the Adam Jacobs was attacked at Tipersville, on the Mississippi River. No one was badly hurt.

Federal officers furnish the following summary of items from the rebel papers:

The Mississippi Legislature was to meet at Montgomery on the 25th of September.

Gen. JOS. JOHNSTON has been at Macon, Ga., since his removal from the command of the rebel forces at Atlanta.

The Selma Appeal says that HENRY S. FOOTE looks on MCCLELLAN as of the peace party, and counsels that the Confederates show a readiness to welcome peace overtures.

The same paper says that the Yankees are strongly fortifying Atlanta, probably for making another movement ere long. Our army is at Jonesboro, with pickets six miles beyond the fortifications.

The Southern journals look for a reign of terror at the North, and a great financial revolution.

The Montgomery Advertiser, of the 30th of September, says that the deputation of the citizens of Atlanta, by the order of Gen. SHERMAN, shows his extremity for supplies, and that he had to adopt that course to save his army from starvation. It does not see how Gen. HOOD could have retained possession of Atlanta, but it thinks that no punishment is too severe for the cowardly miscreants who took the amnesty offered by SHERMAN to save their property and went North.

The Montgomery Mail says that the Mississippi River is patroled by the Yankees with sleepless watchfulness, rendering it impossible to cross anywhere.

The Chief Quartermaster of the Mississippi has issued orders for the preservation of worn out bags of grain, sacks of rape seed, and other material out of which paper can be made for the public use.

Admiral PORTER left here to-day for the North, instead of New-Orleans.

From Missouri.

ST. LOUIS, Sunday, Oct. 2.

A train from Franklin, to-day, reports all quiet there. The rebels are reported to have destroyed the bridges and burned all the railroad property for twenty miles below Franklin, on the Southwest branch.

Prisoners captured about 16 miles from Franklin, report that PRICE was about two miles beyond, with 7,000 men.

All is quiet on the Iron Mountain Railroad, as far as Hillsboro, where the rebels are reported to be working the lead mines.

Fredericktown is still occupied by the rebels, but not in large force.

Gen. EWING'S defence of Pilot Knob is described by eye-witnesses as having been one of the finest of the war. His retreat is also said to have been most gallantly conducted. His men had no sleep for four nights and nothing to eat except what they could pick up on the way, and fought the enemy constantly. Nothing has been heard from them since their arrival at Harrison Station, but it is believed that they have reached Rolla.

The depots of Washington and South Point, 15 and 18 miles West of Rankin, on the Pacific road, are reported to have been burned.

The iron works at Pilot Knob have suffered to the extent of $25,000, and the stores in the town were robbed of from $50,000 to $60,000 worth of goods.

A gentleman who left Pilot Knob on Friday night reports that PRICE has from 20,000 to 25,000 veteran troops, and some 5,000 recruits readily obtained in the State.

Rebel Loss at Pilot Knob—Horrible Murders in Cold Blood—Gen. Rosecrans to take the Field in Person.

ST. LOUIS, Monday, Oct. 3.

Surgeon CARPENTER, Medical Director of this district, accompanied by a rebel flag of truce, arrived here last night, to procure medical supplies for the wounded on both sides. The rebels lost about 200 killed and 600 or 800 wounded in the assault on the fort at Pilot Knob.

Major WILSON, Third Missouri Militia, commandant of the post, and Capt. DINGER, Forty-seventh Missouri, who were captured by the rebels, were badly treated.

Maj. WALKER, who bravely defended Potosi, and several other persons were murdered in cold blood after the surrender of the place.

There is nothing reliable as yet from Gen. EWING.

The Iron Mountain Railroad is pretty badly damaged, and it will take two months to repair it.

There is nothing new from FRANKLIN this morning.

Two brigades of the enrolled militia of this district have gone to Laclede Station, on the Pacific Railroad, eight miles from here.

It is understood that Gen. ROSECRANS will take the field to-day.

Among the rebel wounded at Pilot Knob are Col. THOMAS, Col. MONROE Maj. SUGRIDGE, and several Captains.

POLITICAL.

Enthusiastic Union Demonstrations in Philadelphia.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Monday, Oct. 3.

The National Union League Hall was again crowded this evening with intelligent ladies and gentlemen on the occasion of an address, of nearly two hours' length, by DAVID DOUGHERTY, Esq. The meeting was exceedingly enthusiastic.

Thousands, unable to gain admittance, organized in front of the Union League House.

Judge SHANNON, of Pittsburgh, delivered a patriotic address that awakened many an enthusiastic shout. The Union League is gaining votes very fast for LINCOLN, JOHNSON, Union and Liberty. They have entered the contest with commendable spirit, and with the most cheering prospect of great success.

Bridgeport Election.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Monday, Oct. 3.

In the election for city officers to-day a large vote was polled. The Democrats elect the Mayor by 116 majority, and their whole ticket by over 100 majority, a gain from last year of over 200.

Political.

DANBURY, Conn., Monday, Oct. 3.

In the town election, to-day, the Union ticket was elected by an average majority of 115.

Union Meeting in West Chester, Penn.—Letter from Gen. McCall.

One of the largest meetings ever held in Chester County took place in the town of West Chester, on Saturday morning. The town was filled with people, men and women, coming from every township, and showing by their enthusiasm and the many displays of flowers, wreaths, banners and flags, their devotion to the cause.

After the organization the following letter from Gen. MCCALL was read amid loud and long-continued cheering:

BELAIR, Sept. 30, 1864.

Messrs. W. E. Barber, W. P. Marshall, and others, committee:

GENTLEMEN: I am in receipt of your letter of the 29th inst., inviting me "to preside over a mass meeting of the loyal citizens of Chester, Delaware and Montgomery Counties, to be held at the Agricultural Fair grounds, on Saturday next, the 1st of October." Although I am constrained to decline the honor you have thus intended to convey, I will avail myself of the occasion to express to you my views with respect to the great question (the conduct of the war) now before our country, and soon to be decided at the coming Presidential election, which views in the main have never, under any circumstances, undergone a change. No one deplored more than myself the stern necessity which required the Northern States to take up arms to quell the rebellion of the South, yet no one more than myself felt the necessity of rousing and exerting all the energies of the country to this end. One of two things then stared us in the face: either the positive suppression of the rebellion and the preservation of the Union, or the utter and irretrievable loss of position among the nations of the earth, and the entailment on our children of an everlastiug disagreement, contention and war, with the Southern people. I now believe, as I ever have believed, that if the Union is worth preserving, it is worth the prosecution of the war to a successful conclusion. With regard to the conduct of this war, I cannot say that I have approved or would now indorse all the measures of the present Administration; but I regard any Administration that will energetically prosecute the war as preferable to one that is in favor of an armistice and a convocation of the States—until the States in rebellion have laid down their arms.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
GEORGE A. MCCALL.

The reading of the letter was followed by eloquent addresses from Ex-Gov. POLLOCK and Col. FORNEY.

Speech by Gen. Cochrane.

At a large meeting held at Union League Hall, Philadelphia, on Saturday last, Gen. COCHRANE made an eloquent speech, from which we give the following extract:

The London Times is in favor of the Chicago platform. The London Post (the organ of the aristocracy of Great Britain, who looks upon us as vipor fanged) declares that the Chicago platform is the platform for the Union. So with the journals of France. And then, what is more, the rebels themselves declare that if they can but continue the war until the November election the success of the Democratic party will have achieved for them what their arms have been unable to accomplish. These are the certain tests by which to apply the term "Union" employed by them in their platform, and the language also used in the letter of their candidate in his acceptance. Now, fellow-citizens, I would say one word to those who, like myself, belonged at one time to the Democratic party, and who, like me, when those difficulties were precipitated upon us, rose, as we supposed, above the barriers of party, and arrayed ourselves under the standards of our country. [Applause.] I will be frank with you to-night. You supposed it possible to engraft upon the party creed of that glorious traditionary body, the instincts and declarations of war. The serious and formidable effort was made without success. Party discipline rose above love of country, patriotism was at a discount, and the Democratic party, asserting its discipline, was placed upon an unconditional peace policy, and it is for you to determine whether a party, dear as it may be to you, arraigning itself against your country, will induce you to follow it, or subscribe to the principles which sustain your country. I know the difficulty of severing parties, but those around me to-night I recognize as men of that stern stuff that could have lived in the tide of those times that made Rome what she was. Are there no men here capable of the effort? Is there no patriotism such as nerved BRUTUS' arm? I tell you that the times are rife with the signs of a culminating virtue. The time when party leaders could lead party myrmidons is past. The people of the United States begin to understand the sage-like wisdom of the immortal WASHINGTON. [Applause.] When the Ship of State is in danger, all is unity, or all is lost. Look to it, that the spirit of party be excluded from your midst. I feel that now in this coming week is to be achieved that work on which is pending a contest mightier than the contest of the field. It has been well said that peace hath her victories no less than war. Such a victory is within your grasp. Would you look with pride and gratification if the Army of the Potomac were beaten by LEE? No. So, neither will that army look with pride or gratification, if you are beaten by the peace men of Pennsylvania. [Applause.]

DEPARTURE OF TROOPS.—Seventeen hundred troops left this City yesterday, including three hundred and fifty who were forced by stress of weather to return to the harbor, after sailing for their destination on Saturday. Thirteen hundred of the number were New-York State troops, two hundred convalescents, the others detachments of new recruits from other States.

FROM EUROPE.

News by the Saxonia and the Peruvian.

The Arrival of Muller in London.

The English Press on the Capture of Atlanta.

New Complication of the Danish Question.

The steamship Saxonia, from Southampton on the 21st September, arrived at this port to-day. The steamship Peruvian, with advices to the 23d, arrived off Father Point yesterday afternoon. A brief summary of the news by the Saxonia has already been published, but we find the following additional items of interest.

AMERICAN TOPICS.

The Times of Tuesday, in a leader on the American war, says:

"The capture of Atlanta may fairly be regarded as crowning with success the campaign of the South-Western Army of the Union. The results of the achievement are still to be seen; nor is it, indeed, yet certain that Gen. SHERMAN will be able to retain his prize; but it is a prize, nevertheless, for it represents the object which the Federal Commander proposed to himself from the beginning of his expedition. Never since the commencement of the war has a Federal force plunged so intrepidly into Confederate territory as the Army of Georgia. The Confederates have lost an important position, and been unsuccessful in a campaign. They have not however lost an army, nor any considerable quantity of munitions or stores. The Federals have taken a town in a State hitherto inaccessible to their armies, and can boast of an army quartered in Georgia. One of the great objects of the campaign in Georgia, as well as in Virginia, was the destruction of the Confederate army, and that has not been attained. Gen. HOOD remains in command of a force, which, though it is not a match for SHERMAN'S army, is nevertheless strong, well organized, and safe.

GREAT BRITAIN.

GREAT FIRE IN LONDON.

A most disastrous fire raged for some hours, on Monday, in a block of warehouses in Gresham-street, West London. The warehouses were stored with large quantities of hosiery, cloths, and other goods, and the loss is estimated at £580,000. One of the buildings destroyed was the Ancient Hall of the Haberdashers' Company.

The London Times says:

"A bold and novel scheme, involving a revolution in the construction of vessels of war, has lately been submitted by Mr. MCLAINE, a naval architect of Belfast. Its main feature is the abandonment of broadside guns and the substitution of fore and aft guns, 'to fire only on the line of the keel.'"

MULLER, the alleged murderer of Mr. BRIGGS, left Liverpool on Saturday by express train, and arrived at London in the afternoon. An immense crowd had gathered to see him. He was hurried into a police van, and conveyed to Bow-street. Mr. BEARD and Dr. JUCH had an interview with him. He still strongly protests his innocence, and expresses his confidence that it will be proved. The Times says: It is thought that after his examination on Monday the case will be remanded for a week; although, all the evidence being at hand, there is really no reason for deferring the committal of the accused, and thus involving a repetition of the exciting scenes of Saturday, it being understood that the defence will be reserved for the trial. MULLER remained very quiet on Saturday and Sunday, eating, drinking and sleeping well, and reading at intervals, but never caring apparently to talk. According to present arrangements the examination is intended to take place in the morning of Monday, and it is rumored that, owing to the very limited accommodations in Bow-street, some more commodious place for the investigation will be selected.

MULLER was brought up for examination at Bow-street on Monday. The excitement was almost unprecedented in the annals of the court. During the whole of the examination the prisoner remained perfectly quiet and unmoved, although his expression was sad throughout the inquiry, occupying a seat in the dock during the latter part of it. He scarcely looked at any of the witnesses, nor was there the slightest alteration in the expression of his face as their names were called.

The inquiry was formally adjourned until Monday next, with the understanding that the case would be then completed, and the prisoner committed for trial.

FRANCE.

A telegram from Paris of Sept. 17, says: The rumors circulated at Frankfort of an approaching interview of the French, Russian and Prussian sovereigns at Baden, are considered to be unfounded.

The Duke of Cambridge, passing through Paris, breakfasted with the Emperor.

A telegram from Paris of the 18th, says:

"An imperial decree has been issued creating a professorship of Political Economy and Public Law in the Faculty of Law at Paris. Another decree abolishes the obligation for ships going long voyages to carry a surgeon, when they shall have 30 men on board. They will only be obliged to carry a surgeon when the number of persons on board amounts to 100."

The Gazette of France quotes the following passage, from a letter addressed by GARIBALDI to the Rifle Club at Cansoni, Italy: "Practice with the rifle. The rifle fatally constitutes the justice of modern civilization, and when handled by stout arms like yours, it gives men the right to have no masters but themselves."

The Paris correspondent of the Times says:

"Accounts from the cotton manufacturing districts of France state that the cotton crisis, which has created so much distress among the operatives there, is, fortunately, almost at an end."

In Senegal, where the natives have long cultivated cotton, one American house, at Goree, purchased 20,000 kilogrammes for export to America. A French house purchased this year 60,000 kilos grown by the natives of Casamance. The native cotton of Serreres is the most sought after.

PARIS, Tuesday, Sept. 20.

According to reliable information, it seems certain that an arrangement has been come to between the Courts of France and Italy in reference to the solution of the Roman question. It is believed that Florence will shortly become the capital of Italy.

RUSSIA.

The Moscow Gazette publishes a frightful list of fires which, since April last, have taken place in different parts of Russia, and it adds, that the account of the principal disasters is not complete. The work of incendiaries commenced at the end of April, in the Government of Kalonez, by the destruction of fifty-four houses; next at Okhansk, two hundred and four houses were burnt; at Serdobok, four-fifths of the town was destroyed; at Mozir, one-half of the houses; at Meloga, more than two hundred; and at the fair of Nijni-Noogorod, fifteen hundred booths and one hundred and forty-eight houses; at Patrofsk there were six fires in June, and entire quarters of the town were consumed. The powder magazine of Nazan and that of Okhta, near Petersburg, were blown up. At Riga two fires occurred, the same at Tuplen, where the finest quarters of the town were consumed. At Orenburg six hundred houses were burnt, and Baki is only a heap of ruins. Four conflagrations took place at St. Petersburg, six at Simbirsk, a town which, as well as Yaroslavi, are now in ruins. Previous to April two imperial cannon foundries were laid waste. Fresh disasters are apprehended, and the Russian Government is called upon to adopt prompt and rigorous measures.

SPAIN.

THE NEW SPANISH MINISTRY.

The new Cabinet has been formed, composed as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| President of the Council, without Portfolio | Marshal NARVAEZ. |
| Foreign Affairs | Señor SIERANTA. |
| War | Señor CORDOVA. |
| Justice | LORENZO ARAZOLA. |
| Marine | Senor ARMERO. |
| Interior | GONZALES BRAVO. |
| Finance | Manuel BARRASCOLIANA. |
| Public Works | Senor GALIANO. |
| Public Worship | Seijas LOZANO. |

The New Cabinet under Marshal NARVAEZ, announces a conciliatory policy. The prosecutions against the journals are suspended.

HOLLAND.

A telegram from the Hague of Sept. 19, says: "The Legislative session was opened to-day by the King. His Majesty, in his speech from the throne, says: 'The country and the colonies are in a prosperous state. A number of public works are contemplated. Bills for the abolition of local excise duties will be laid before you, together with other important financial propositions. The redemption of the debt will be continued.'

A project for the reorganization of the customs tariff in the Dutch colonies of East India will also be laid before the Chamber."

THE DANISH QUESTION.

The Vienna Presse, of Sept. 19, asserts that the Danish Cabinet is willing to consent to the proposal that the claims of the Duchies on the public property of the kingdom should be satisfied with the payment by Denmark of a round sum, this arrangement to be preceded by one definitively settling the respective allotment of the assets and liabilities of the country. Financial difficulties only delay the conclusion of peace. The negotiations on the prolongation of the armistice, which has expired, are near their end. The demand of Denmark that the troops of the allies in Jutland are not to be provisioned by Denmark, has been absolutely rejected by the German Powers.

AUSTRIA.

The Emperor leaves Vienna on the 19th for Hungary. According to the Oesterreichische Zeitung, the journey is undertaken exclusively for military purposes.

THE DANISH QUESTION.

The semi-official Nordd. Deutsch Allgemeine Zeitung says: "The intention of extending the term of the armistice for a longer period has been abandoned, the protraction of peace negotiations on the part of Denmark not having been without influence on that point. In fact, the political situation in Copenhagen has assumed a peculiar character. Not only do Swedish papers evince in the most pointed manner Scandinavian tendencies, but even Copenhagen journals openly avow sentiments favorable to the formation of a Scandinavian dynasty. Instead of recognizing they attack the stipulations of the peace preliminaries. It is, therefore, quite intelligible that the great German Powers should adhere strictly to paragraph one of the protocol of the armistice, whereby hostilities can be resumed at any time after six weeks' notice.

SWITZERLAND.

A telegram from Berne, of Sept. 17, says: "A public petition has been addressed to the National Assembly, demanding a revision of the Federal Constitution, the provisions of which are opposed to the conclusion of a Treaty of Commerce with France, in order that such treaty may be concluded in a Constitutional manner. The revision is to be obtained by an appeal to the people of Switzerland. The Government of Berne has given its sanction, with certain reservations, to the statutes of the Credit Mobilier European."

ITALY.

The Turin journals discuss the question of the removal of the capital of Italy to Florence. The Opinione says that if this removal were necessary to advance the solution of the Roman question, the Italian Government could not assume the responsibility of a refusal.

VICTORY IN EAST TENNESSEE.

Gen. Gillem Wins Another Victory—The Rebel Vaugh Defeated and His Forts Captured—Gen. Burbridge in Southwestern Virginia—Salt Works Captured.

LOUISVILLE, Monday, October 3.

The following has been received:—

CAIN'S STATION, Saturday, October 1.

To Gen. Schofield:

We arrived here about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and found the enemy under Gen. VAUGHN strongly entrenched on both sides of the river. After heavy cannonading and skirmishing all the afternoon and until noon to-day, the enemy were driven out of his forts, and fled towards Zollicoffer.

I will burn the bridge and destroy the railroad from this point, and prevent the resources of East Tennessee from being used in the support of the rebellion. Our artillery fired upward of two hundred rounds.

A. C. GILLEN.

Gen. SCHOFIELD has also received information that Gen. BURBRIDGE captured the salt works near Abingdon, Va., with little resistance.

B. F. LIVINGSTON, Chief of U. S. Police, has been placed in close confinement by order of Lieut.-Col. HAMMOND, and JOHN A. GARDEN appointed in his place.

Marine Disasters.

HYANNIS, Mass., Monday, Oct. 3.

The steamer Island Home, from Nantucket, reports: Picked up in Vineyard Sound Capt. RICHARDSON and four men of the schooner Charlotte, lumber laded, from Bangor for Newport, R. I., which struck on Pollock Rip on Saturday night, filled and went to pieces. The crew, when rescued, were on the quarter-deck of the vessel, just above the water, in an exhausted condition.

The schooner S. K. Hart, of Bangor, for Jersey City, before reported abandoned, drifted ashore on the 3d inst., near Highland Light, Cape Cod. She will be a total wreck, but part of her cargo will be saved.

New Rebel Steamer off Cape Race.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Monday, Oct. 3.

The new steamer Carolina, nine days from Glasgow, passed Cape Race at 2 P. M. on Sunday, the 2d inst., and was boarded by the news yacht. She reported "bound for Wilmington, via Halifax, with machinery." The Carolina is a beautifully shaped sidewheel steamer, of 470 tons register, and is very fast.

The Carolina, also, reports that her sister ship, the Colonel Lamb, will pass the Cape on Tuesday, for the same destination.

From Nashville.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sunday, Oct. 2.

FORREST, with his whole force, appeared before Huntsville, this morning, and demanded its surrender. The Commanding Officer, Col. G. M. L. JOHNSON, of the Twelfth Indiana Cavalry, refused to comply. There has probably been heavy fighting there, to-day, but no fears are entertained of its capture.

The total Federal loss in Gen. ROUSSEAU'S expedition in killed and wounded is 68.

Large numbers of rebels are reported at Spring Hill, 13 miles beyond Franklin. The lines are cut at that place.

Naval.

HALIFAX, N. S., Monday, Oct. 3.

The Federal war-steamer Florida anchored below on Sunday. A boat with dispatches, &c., was sent to the city. The officers and crew were hospitably entertained by the officers and crew of H. M. S. Jason.

MONDAY, Oct. 3—P. M.

The Weekly Averages of the old Banks of the City of New-York, on Saturday, Oct. 1, 1864, present, in the aggregate, the following changes from the previous exhibit of Sept. 24:

| | |
|---|---|
| Increase in Loans | $345,619 |
| Decrease in Specie | 394,049 |
| Increase in Circulation | $10,721 |
| Increase in Undrawn Deposits | 1,161,162 |

Including the Clearing-house operations of the week, which show the inter-exchanges between the Banks, including also the Sub-Treasury balance at the close of the week, the following is the general comparison with the previous exhibit, and also with the movement this time last season:

| | Oct. 3, 1863. | Oct. 1, 1864. | Sept. 24, 1864. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Capital | $69,401,000 | $69,927,725 | $69,927,725 |
| Loans | 206,442,874 | 185,896,837 | 185,551,211 |
| Specie | 30,064,414 | 19,671,131 | 20,065,180 |
| Circulation | 5,375,586 | 4,157,828 | 4,147,107 |
| Gross Deposits | 245,158,932 | 236,322,176 | 221,525,218 |
| Exchanges | 62,565,438 | 90,516,079 | 76,870,283 |
| Undrawn | 182,653,494 | 145,819,097 | 144,654,035 |
| In Sub-Treasury | 29,975,518 | 22,511,938 | 28,303,563 |

The Associated Bank return is rather higher on the Deposit line than last Monday, and partially lower on Specie. The change in Loans and Discounts is quite inconsiderable.

The total amount of Gold and Silver held by the old Associated Banks and in the Treasury Office in New-York City, at the close of September, was:

| | |
|---|---|
| In Associated Banks | $19,671,131 |
| Sub-Treasury | 12,268,013 |
| Total | $31,939,144 |
| Against close of August: | |
| In Bank | $19,952,949 |
| Sub-Treasury | 12,731,793-$32,684,742 |
| Difference | $745,598 |

—After an export of Gold and Silver in September of $3,033,000.

It was announced to the holders of U. S. Gold-bearing Stocks, about the middle of August last, that seventeen millions of Gold interest, due on the 1st September, 1st October and 1st November, on the Public Debt, would be anticipated on the presentation of the Coupons, without abatement. As the larger share of this interest is subject to demand at the New-York Office of the Treasury, the Department held in Gold and Silver Coin, at this office, at the close of the month of August, independent of its balances in London, subject to draft, in case of need from New-York.....$12,731,793
And at close of September..... 12,268,613
Showing a difference of..... $463,180

As between the fresh receipts of Gold for Customs and the demands through the month for the prepayment of Gold interest, the Government has had no occasion to draw against its London balance through the New-York office, nor has it, as a seller of Gold, or in any other way than on the glorious battle-fields of September, contributed to the fall of Gold from 280 to 190 ₱ cent.

The announcement of the New Loan of $40,000,000 has not been felt in the Money Market. It seems to have been anticipated a day or two by the speculators against the Stock Exchange, as prices were made lower on Saturday afternoon on the Railway list than at the early Board this morning. Other influences, however—the same which have heretofore governed the general Bear movement—soon checked the slight tendency to recovery, and at the Second Board, Erie, as the standard of the Railway Share list, fell back about 1 ₱ cent.

The New Loan affected the present gold-bearing stocks from 1 to 1½ per cent. at the Stock Exchange; the 5-20s were at first sold down to 106 per cent., but soon rallied to 106⅛@106¼ per cent., including 1 November Coupon, or its equivalent in gold, in case the Coupon has been collected by the previous holder. The subscriptions at Washington to the popular 7-30 Per Cent. Loan to-day amount to $1,086,700. These will go on without reference to the announcement of the New Gold-bearing Loan.

The price of Gold ranged 1@2 per cent. higher than the last quotations of Saturday. The fluctuations were 192@189¾@191¼ per cent. Most of the Exchanges on London are quoted as for Gold, at 108¼@108⅜ per cent., the Currency rate being fixed by the price of Gold at the moment of settling the transaction.

At 4 o'clock the following quotations were made for the general market; the speculation being in the direction of lower figures for the Railways. Gold 191¼ ₱ cent. The Western Roads very much depressed; possibly on account of forced sales on Chicago account. The failures among the Bankers and Speculators in that quarter were quite serious all through last week.

Mr. GEORGE HARRINGTON, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, is in town, on his return to Washington from a trip of recreation to New-England.

We understand that Mr. W. A. SHANNON, Deputy Assistant Treasurer in the New-York Office of the Treasury Department has resigned his place, and that Mr. N. T. ROSETTER has been appointed to the vacant post.

The Trustees for the Bondholders of the Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien Road, Messrs. W. SCHALL and N. A. COWDREY, advertise that they will pay off $60,500 of the Mortgage Bonds (by designated numbers,) on presentation, at par and interest to 1st October. The mortgage being convertible into the First Preferred 8 ₱ cent. stock of the road, selling at a premium of 10@15 ₱ cent.—recently as high as 20@22 ₱ cent.—the holders of the small remainder of the Bonds—something less than a million of dollars, we believe—will probably resort to conversion before the next half-yearly drawing for the Sinking Fund, in which case the Road will be wholly free of debt, and the Common Stock entitled to regular half-yearly dividends.

The day's business at the office of the Assistant Treasurer of the United States, New-York, was as follows: Receipts, $3,534,702 03, including for Customs, $94,000, and 7 3-10 Notes, $33,300; payments, $3,519,657 44; balance, $22,526,984 24.

TOBACCO.—The movements in this line, Messrs. M. RADER & SON notice thus: "In our issue of 1st September we reported the close of the previous month as inactive, gold having fluctuated from 255 to 232, and gradually recovered to 247, without breeding confidence in its stability. This declining tendency of gold has been the chief feature of the whole month, having gradually receded to 185, and for the last few days lingered between 195@205. This of course has paralyzed most mercantile undertakings, and increased the difficulty of establishing values; and although some of our export buyers have been willing and have paid the same gold par value for what parcels have been sold, our factors are very reluctant of continually reducing their currency prices to meet the differences of exchanges. During the last few days some sales have been effected for Gold, but some of the larger holders prefer to wait for further developments, particularly on good quality sorts, rather than to submit to the present views of buyers. On the other side, sellers cannot expect, on a dull market with accumulating stocks, that buyers would pay higher prices, when reduced to the gold standard, than during a time when the demand was fully up to the supply. At the beginning of the month some 700 hhds. Lugs were sold at 14c.@14⅜c.; about 1,000 hhds. Low Leaf to Fine, suitable for Regies, at 14¾c.@36c., and 250 hhds. heavy Western and Clarksville 27c.@47½c. Subsequently, about 1,800 hhds. more were sold, most for France and Italy, at a further reduction of from 1c.@ 2c. ₱ lb. Since then transactions have been quite limited, amounting to about 800 hhds. Lugs at 5½c.@ 5¾c. in gold, and 11c.@11¾c. in currency, for common sorts. The receipts and stocks on hand at this port compare with last year as follows:

Although we hear from some parts in the West and Southwest of frost about the 18th of September, the damage is mostly confined to low bottoms and late planting, and will not much affect our estimate of the crop of about 60,000 hhds.; and we are glad to hear from reliable sources that the crop, although smaller, will be in general of better quality than the last. As prices are nominal, we can only say here that, to bring them within the scope of buyers, deduction of from 20 to 25 ₱ cent. has to be granted from previous quotations, as long as gold will keep within the present range. In Spanish Tobacco we have no transactions of note, as even the retail trade has become insignificant. The export demand for Seed Leaf has also received a serious check; in the early part of the month some larger purchases of Connecticut and some parcels of Pennsylvania and Ohio Wrappers, running lots, were made at our previous quotations, but since then the market has relapsed, and as the home trade is very limited, there is but very little doing, and prices ar nominal. Of the new crop Seed Leaf Tobacco, experts speak very well of the Connecticut crop, stating that since housing the Tobacco, the weather has been very favorable for curing. The indications are now that we shall have very fine, sound and handsome Leaf this year, and that it will exceed in quantity the last crop. From other sections we have as yet no direct returns. Manufactured Tobacco, except for small jobbing trade, and a few incidental lots for export, is inactive and prices nominal. Bonded goods have experienced a decline in some instances to meet the views of foreign buyers. A large number of Western and City factories have stopped work."

THE CITY GOVERNMENT.

[OFFICIAL.]

BOARD OF COUNCILMEN.

STATED SESSION—FRIDAY, Sept. 30, 1864, 2 o'clock P. M.

The Board met, pursuant to adjournment, in their Chamber, No. Sixteen City Hall.

Present—James Hayes, Esq., President, in the chair, and the following members:

Councilmen Healy, Keenan, Riley, Brophy, Hagerty, Webster, Heffernan, Ryan, Gross, Repper, Koster, Houghtalin, Haviland, McGrath, Opdyke, Jaques, Shaefer, Crook, Brandon, Brice, Fitzgerald, Joyce—23.

The minutes of the meeting held September twenty-nine, were read and approved.

MOTIONS.

Councilman Brandon moved that the usual order of business be suspended for the purpose of taking up papers from the Board of Aldermen.

Which was carried.

PAPERS FROM THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Veto message from His Honor the Mayor, of resolution authorizing the Fulton Railroad Company to lay rails and run cars in certain streets of the City.

(By Board of Aldermen, September twenty-nine, resolution adopted, notwithstanding the objection of His Honor the Mayor, two-thirds of all the members elected to the board voting in favor thereof.)

Councilman Hagerty moved that the action of the Board of Aldermen, in adopting said resolution, notwithstanding the objection of His Honor the Mayor, be concurred in, and on that motion moved the previous question.

Councilman Jaques raised the point of order that the paper now proposed to be passed over the Mayor's veto had never properly reached the Mayor that he might veto it; that said paper was properly before the Board in an entirely different form, a motion to reconsider the veto by which it was originally adopted in this Board being now pending.

The President decided that the point of order was not well taken, and that the question was upon the motion of Councilman Hagerty.

Councilman Jaques appealed from the decision of the chair.

The President put the question: "Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgement of the Board?"

Which was decided in the affirmative.

Councilman Jaques moved that the resolutions be laid upon the table.

Councilman Hagerty raised the point of order that no business was in order, until the motion for the previous question should be decided.

The President directed that the point of order was well taken.

The President put the question: "Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgement of the Board?"

Which was decided in the affirmative by the following vote:

Affirmative—Councilmen Healy, Keenan, Riley, Brophy, Hagerty, Webster, Heffernan, Ryan, Gross, Repper, Koster, Houghtalin, Haviland, McGrath, Cook, Brandon, Brice, Fitzgerald, Joyce—19.

Negative—Councilman Opdyke, Jaques, Shaefer—3.

Councilman Jaques moved that the Board do now adjourn.

The President decided said motion out of order pending the motion for the previous question.

Councilman Jaques appealed from the decision of the Chair.

The President put the question: "Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the decision of the Board?"

Which was decided in the affirmative.

The President then stated the question to be: "Shall the main question now be put?"

Councilman Opdyke raised the point of order that the previous question was irregular, inasmuch as the previous question itself, viz., to concur, had not been stated to the Board prior to the motion for the previous question being made.

The President decided the point of order not well taken.

The President then again stated the question to be: "Shall the main question now be put?"

Which was carried by the following vote:

Affirmative—Councilmen Healy, Keenan, Riley, Brophy, Hagerty, Hayes, Webster, Ryan, Gross, Repper, Houghtalin, Haviland, McGrath, Cook, Brandon, Brice, Fitzgerald, Joyce—18.

Negative—Councilmen Heffernan, Koster, Opdyke, Jaques, Shaefer—5.

The President then stated the question to be on the previous question, being the motion of Councilman Hagerty, "That the action of the Board of Aldermen, concurring in adopting said resolution notwithstanding the objections of His Honor the Mayor, be concurred in."

Which was concurred in by the following vote:

Affirmative—Councilmen Healy, Keenan, Riley, Hagerty, Hayes, Webster, Ryan, Gross, Repper, Houghtalin, Haviland, McGrath, Cook, Brandon, Brice, Fitzgerald, Joyce—17.

Negative—Councilmen Brophy, Heffernan, Koster, Opdyke, Jaques, Schaefer—6.

Councilman Webster moved that the Board do now adjourn.

Which was carried.

Whereupon the President declared that the Board stood adjourned to Monday, October two, at two o'clock P. M.

JAS. M. SWEENY, Clerk.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

A dispatch from Gen. SHERIDAN, dated at Harrisonburgh, Oct. 1, 9:30 P. M., has been received by the War Department. He says he has been to Staunton and Waynesborough with the cavalry; destroyed the iron bridge on South River at Waynesborough, throwing it into the river; also the bridge near Christiana Creek, and the railroad from Staunton to Waynesborough. SHERIDAN is also preparing for a renewed onset against EARLY'S forces.

The latest news from Gen. GRANT is an official dispatch dated City Point, Oct. 2, 8:30 P. M., in which he says: "BUTLER on the right of the James River, and MEADE southwest of Petersburgh, occupy the same position as yesterday. There has been but very little fighting to-day. A few prisoners have been captured. On Saturday evening BUTLER sent two brigades of infantry within a few hundred yards of the inner line of works east of Richmond, meeting with no opposition." On Saturday morning the rebels made an attack on AYRES' division, southwest of Petersburgh, in which they were severely repulsed. Our special correspondent with Gen. BUTLER'S column gives the particulars of the attack on Friday by three divisions of rebels upon the right of the Eighteenth Corps, being an attempt to dislodge our troops from the captured forts, but our veterans were as steady as a wall of iron, and dealt the rebels a most terrible punishment. During the fighting on that day, Brig.-Gen. STANNARD, of the Eighteenth Corps, was wounded in the arm, rendering amputation necessary. All non-combatants have left Richmond, business has ceased, the newspapers have suspended publication, and every person between fifteen and sixty, has been put into the defences.

No dispatches have been received for three days from Gen. SHERMAN, but vigorous measures, which it is believed will be successful, have been taken by him to protect his communications from the rebel raiding parties under WHEELER and FORREST.

FROM EUROPE.

The steamship Peruvian, with advices to Sept. 23, arrived off Father Point Sunday afternoon, and the Saxonia, from Southampton, Sept. 21, arrived at this port yesterday. The London press, the rebel organs particularly, discussed the latest American news vigorously, and admitted that Atlanta was the crowning success of SHERMAN'S campaign, but insists, as usual, that the achievement will be of no avail in closing the war. A disastrous fire had occurred in London, involving a loss of $2,500,000. The examination of MULLER, the railway murderer, was in progress, and produced an excitement unprecedented in the annals of the court. The Danish question shows symptoms of another outbreak of hostilities in consequence of the refusal of Denmark, backed by Sweden, to agree upon the terms of peace. The Turin journals discuss the removal of the capital of Italy to Florence. The Opinione says that if this removal were necessary to advance the solution of the Roman question, the Italian Government could not assume the responsibility of a refusal.

GENERAL NEWS.

Transactions in most descriptions of produce and merchandise were on a restricted scale yesterday. The very unfavorable news from Chicago tended decidedly to depress prices of breadstuffs, which were generally lower, with a light business. Provisions were unsettled, during the day, but closed heavily. Cotton, whisky, oils, tallow and groceries were quiet and declining. Freights were dull.

The cattle yards at Forty-fourth-street have been supplied fully up to the demand, unless it be on really good cattle, which have not averaged as well as last week. The books foot up for the week thus far near 3,700 head, besides probably 300 brought by the way trains. The sales at Bergen were above 1,000 head. The market, though tolerably active in the morning, grew dull during the day, and a considerable number were left till the afternoon. Salesmen, in some cases, complained that they did not obtain as good weights as last week. We quote a decline in the market of ½c.@1c. ₩ lb., 18c. being about the price for the best on sale. A few may have reached 18½c. Medium to good bullocks sold at about 13c.@17c., and poorer stock at lower figures. Twelve hundred head are reported held back at Albany; should many of them arrive to-morrow, we may expect a still further reduction in price at the close. Good sheep are selling a trifle lower than last week, rating at 8½c., live weight, while a few were sold on Saturday at 8¾c.

The Board of Aldermen had no quorum yesterday, and adjourned to 1 P. M. on Thursday. The Board of Councilmen laid upon the table a protest by Councilman JACQUES and OPDYKE against the action of the Board at the previous meeting, in concurring in the passage of the Fulton railroad grant over the Mayor's veto. The protest gives a series of reasons why the grant was irregularly made, but is devoted, more especially, to giving reasons why it was an improper one to be made at all, the chief of which is that there is no limitation of rate of fare to be charged, and that, there being no limit of time, the grant is one in perpetuity. The Board adjourned to 2 P. M. on Thursday.

A mass meeting of the citizens of the Twentieth Ward was held last evening at the Hall corner of Broadway and Forty-seventh-street. The attendance was large and enthusiastic. Speeches were made by GEORGE WILLIAM CURTIS, Esq., Col. VAN BUREN, and others.

Capt. EISTER, a mustering officer at Columbus, Ohio, was arrested last Thursday, charged with being one of the Lake Erie conspirators. EISTER was lately at Sandusky and Johnson's Islands, where he became acquainted with COLE, one of the leaders of the conspiracy, and several letters, which subsequently passed between them, strongly implicate him. He has been duly deposited in Fort Lafayette.

The price of Gold yesterday rated 1@2 ₩ cent. higher than the last price of Saturday, closing 191½. Stocks continued depressed. No change in Money market.

GEORGE LOMBARD was brought before U. S. Commissioner BETTS yesterday, charged with passing a fifty-dollar counterfeit United States note on LEOPOLD SOLOMON. After some unimportant evidence, the case was adjourned, on motion of R. N. WAITE, Esq., attorney for prisoner.

The Court of Oyer and Terminer opened yesterday for the October Term, but owing to the absence of a majority of the Grand Jurors, His Honor adjourned the Court until Wednesday morning.

The Washington Chronicle, of Saturday, says a young man has just reached that city from Richmond, having left the latter place by night, something less than a week since, to avoid military service. He says that many people in Richmond whisper that the South must succumb, while the majority, perhaps, feel secure. He reports that intrenchments, skillfully planned and well defended, extend several miles from the city, and this statement agrees with that of one of our returned prisoners, an officer, who said that he counted five lines of defences as he passed into the city by the Central Railroad.

It having been ascertained that large sums are frequently found upon bounty-jumping deserters, Secretary STANTON has ordered such money to be returned to deserters only after they have served their terms and received an honorable discharge. Col. WELLS, Provost Marshal at Alexandria, has taken, in the last two months, forty thousand dollars from deserters.

Yesterday, Rev. F. A. P. BARNARD, D. D., was inaugurated as President of Columbia College.

The Foes of the Country McClellan's Friends.

Every rebel newspaper in the South, every Tory newspaper in England, every Imperial newspaper in France, expresses a hope for the election of MCCLELLAN. No Copperhead newspaper can deny this fact. Every new mail brings a new exhibition of it.

Now, how is it that rebels, Tories, Imperialists and Copperheads are in such extraordinary accord on this point? What is there that unites them all in such a longing that GEORGE B. MCCLELLAN should displace ABRAHAM LINCOLN? Can it be a desire for the strength and glory of our country? Do rebels favor him because they want the Confederacy wiped out and the Union restored? Do the privileged classes of England favor him because they want our Democratic institutions to be secured and strengthened? Do the supporters of the French Emperor favor him because they imagine that the success of "the Model Republic" will commend the imperial system and perpetuate his dynasty?

These are questions that no supporter of MCCLELLAN dare undertake to answer. To say yes to them, would be ridiculous. To say anything else, would be to confess that the election of MCCLELLAN promises ill, and not good, to the country.

The bare statement of the fact, that all the elements hostile to the Union, in the South and in Europe, are united for MCCLELLAN, is in itself a conclusive reason why no friend of the Union should support him. It tells the whole story. The attraction to MCCLELLAN is an evil attraction. Bad men don't rally to a righteous lead. The wolves didn't make the sheep their captain; or, if they did, it was only to impose upon the simple, and get a better chance at the fold.

It is needless to discuss MCCLELLAN. Let him be what he may, his having such a following condemns him. Imagine him ever so good a Union man, it don't make him fit to be trusted. Some of his friends say, to the prejudice of his sincerity, that privately he don't agree with the Chicago platform. It may be so. But his private agreement or disagreement has nothing practically to do with his line of action, as the head of his party. The sheep at the head of the wolves must do wolves' work. Its getting there may have come from an innocent silliness; but once there, it cannot help itself. The position dominates. The single will is nothing against the general disposition and the settled policy. FERNANDO WOOD had a right to say, with all emphasis in his speech at Tammany Hall: "Gen. MCCLELLAN will be our agent and the creature of our will." VALLANDIGHAM but told the plain truth in his Sydney speech, when he said that the Chicago platform "should be the accepted enunciation of Democratic doctrines for the next four years," and declared unqualifiedly that MCCLELLAN "will abide by its principles."

That which unites rebels, tories, imperialists with the rankest Copperheads so unanimously upon the Chicago nominee, cannot be any particular concern for him personally. Their fervor can be due to nothing else than to a liking for the policy of the party with which he is identified. They believe that policy adverse to the Union, and, on that score only, give him their support. Are these men deceived? Can it be that the keenest intellects among all the enemies of the Union are at fault in estimating the effect of MCCLELLAN'S election upon the fortunes of the Union?

Now will loyal Americans further these malign calculations? Are they willing to cast such votes as shall delight the enemies of the Republic? Every true American feeling revolts against it. The time has not come when our birthright is to be managed so as to please rebels at home and foes abroad. Our people have not yet so degenerated from their fathers, who braved the world in laying broad and deep, in human rights, the foundations of a Government that shall endure for ages.

PRISONERS NORTH AND SOUTH.—We discussed some months ago the propriety of putting to some proper and appropriate use, some at least of the immense number of rebel prisoners we have had in our hands for over a year. Their long and enforced idleness is in itself a cruelty, leading to listlessness, physical exhaustion, bad habits and viciousness, whereas if they had the liberty, under proper restrictions, to engage in such useful pursuits as they might select, they would at once add to their own happiness, educate themselves in valuable occupations, and be of service to the Commonwealth. The Richmond papers republished our article, and spoke of the idea as one of the most atrocious thatever entered the Northern brain. Whether because of its atrocity or not, the rebels, it seems, have been and are now practicing the system. A recent number of the Richmond Enquirer, speaking of the Union prisoners in the Confederate States, remarks:

"Among these prisoners are mechanics of every trade and calling. From these men hundreds of shoemakers have been selected, and are now making shoes for our armies. The untiring energy of Maj. MAYNARD soon discovered that Yankee prisoners in shops were much more useful than in prisons. Establishing a large shop, he took from the prisons shoemakers and organized a manufactory. A small guard is all that is required; and these Yankees permit detailed men to be sent to the army. Maj. MAYNARD'S experiment should be tried in all our shops and manufactories. These Yankees, if treated kindly, will soon be satisfied and contented to remain in safety rather than by escaping to the enemy to be sent back to their army for this Fall and Winter. For every Yankee so employed a detailed man can be sent to the trenches, and thus the practical effects of an exchange realized. The prisons in the Confederate States contain thousands of skilled mechanics, the very men needed in the shops and manufactories of the Confederacy."

A Few Words to Conservatives.

It has always been a matter of congratulation to this journal, that so considerable a number of its readers were—from the so-called "conservative" classes—from those who have property interests to conserve, and important stakes in the welfare of the country, as well as those whose habits of mind and of life lead them to oppose sudden changes and spasmodic reforms.

To these citizens this election is an immensely important event, and they do well to carefully consider how their vote is to be given. For, if a mistake be made on either side, the shock to property and all the best interests of the nation, will be beyond any experience of our history. No doubt a certain proportion of these men are inclined to give their votes to Gen. MCCLELLAN, from motives of personal sympathy or friendship with him, or from the habit of having often acted with his party. But the question must come up, "Will it be safe?"

Supposing Gen. MCCLELLAN to entirely break from his party—which we do not believe probable—his election will be the signal, according to the ancient and absurd custom of the country, for an entire change of the civil administration of the nation. Every postmaster and tax-collector, all the Government officials throughout the land, all the bureaux at Washington, the ministers and cabinet, must all abandon their posts, and at once admit a new and inexperienced host of executive officers throughout the nation. More than this, the whole military system may be at once overturned, and new men put in, in every position of responsibility. Quartermasters, assistants, commanders of posts, and even the Generals of our armies, may all be relieved, and the favorites or partisans of the new President be set in their places.

In the face of such powerful and skillful adversaries as we have, a revolutionary change like this, dangerous even in time o peace, would be perilous in the extreme. To make such a revolution as this, with men like DAVIS and LEE watching for a weak point, would be suicidal. A civil war and a domestic upturning like this, would be more than even the strength of our people could bear.

We know our present officials, civil and military. We certainly could not find better officers than GRANT and SHERMAN and FARRAGUT and SHERIDAN. It is doubtful if any portion of our civil affairs would be any better managed by new men, while a change would certainly be dangerous.

More than this, we submit to these gentlemen, that whatever confidence they may have in MCCLELLAN, personally, he must, to a certain degree, follow his party, and will, without doubt, be influenced by the leaders of that party—such men as SEYMOUR, PENDLETON, VALLANDIGHAM and WOOD. The latter are certainly not safe or "Conservative" men. They have pledged themselves to peace and an armistice. We have abundantly proved that this can mean nothing but the independence of the rebel Confederacy. The whole world sees that, and the Tory journals of England rejoice at it, for they know that it includes the repudiation of our debt, the disorganization of our Union, the destruction of every competing material interest, and endless war and anarchy—as we have before shown. Their call for a "Convention of the States" can mean nothing but revolution, and there is every reason to think that those western Copperheads want a "Northwestern Confederacy." Such men are political adventurers, dangerous in all their schemes to the peace and welfare of the country.

Still more, we call the attention of our conservative readers to the fact that a great change has come over the country, and that now Anti-Slavery is the conservative element, and Slavery the revolutionary. It is clear that there can be no permanent quiet or prosperity in this land, while Slavery exists as a power. Its destruction is the only possible condition of safety to property and of lasting good-will between the different sections. The war has changed all our relations to it. The dullest can see what a volcano of war and revolution is hidden beneath the crust of the "domestic institution." There can be no peace till Freedom and respect for labor rule every community under our national banner. All the property of the country is now intervolved with the success of the Anti-Slavery principle. The success of the Chicago platform would, by securing the recognition of the Confederacy, give a new lease of life to Slavery, and extend our life-and-death struggle with it, for a century.

Every interest of property, then, every wise consideration against sudden change, every respect for a future of security and good order, are on the side of the Union party.

OUR ARMY IN GEORGIA.—Secretary STANTON says, in his bulletin published this morning, that no dispatches have been received for three days from Gen. SHERMAN, and press dispatches from that army have latterly almost entirely stopped. It has been surmised that this silence is ominous, and that active operations in Georgia are again about to be resumed. On this topic the Louisville Journal, of Friday last, remarks:

"It is believed that SHERMAN'S army is in motion and the movement ultimately will compel FORREST speedily to withdraw from Tennessee. SHERMAN, as we understand it, is not detaching a force to look after his rear, but has concentrated his entire command for a bold advance and an eagle-like swoop down upon the army under HOOD. The blow will be marked with dispatch, and, it is believed, will prove decisive."

A late Georgia newspaper—the Macon Telegraph—is obliging enough to give us the precise location in which HOOD'S army has planted itself since the retreat from Atlanta. It remarks:

"It is no longer a secret that our army has changed its position, and is intrenched on the Montgomery and West Point Road. Our army is firmly established in its new position—the left resting on the Chattahoochee River, and the line crossing the West Point Road, between Fairburn and Palmetto. The cavalry on our right is on the Macon Road, and will attend to any raiding parties which the enemy may undertake to dispatch in this direction."

It would appear from HOOD'S location that the rebels surmise and fear that the next advance of Gen. SHERMAN will be in the direction of Montgomery and Mobile. HOOD, however, has very discreetly planted himself where he has two convenient lines of retreat—one toward Macon, if SHERMAN should advance southwesterly in the direction of Montgomery—and one toward Montgomery, if SHERMAN should advance southeasterly upon Macon. He is near the junction of the Macon and Montgomery lines, twenty miles south of Atlanta—or rather he was there a few days ago.

The Disgrace of America.

There can be little question that the worst thing that will be said hereafter against our institutions, the thing which more than all else will lead posterity to doubt their value, will be that, after only eighty years' working, such a tribe of people as our Copperheads should have grown up under them. It is safe to say that the like of them, considering the advantages they have enjoyed, has never appeared in any country or in any age. England had her Jacobites, men who plotted against the public peace and public liberty in unison with foreign governments, who took pay from foreign despots for bringing confusion into the councils of their own country, who betrayed the navy and sought to betray the army, to the public enemy, to whom the national honor and independence were jests, and to whom the triumph of the Court party, or, in other words, their party, was their first and dearest aim. But then the Jacobites were courtiers, or were bred under Court influences, men who had been taught from their very cradles to despise liberty, and to think of the country as the royal domain, and of the King's prerogative as the only thing in it worth preserving. They grew up in an age when the great political principles which are now familiar in our mouths as household words, were but imperfectly understood, when but few peoples in Europe had solidified into nations, and when the claims of country were only beginning to asert themselves against those of creed and caste.

The French, too, have had their Emigrés, men who often met the just efforts of their countrymen to secure relief from horrible oppression, by flying into the ranks of foreign armies, and helping them to invade French soil,—men who made the taverns and coffee-houses of every capital in Europe ring with their vivas whenever they heard of the defeat of the French arms, and dishonor of the French flag. But then the emigrés were members of a caste; it was their boast that they were of a better breed and nobler blood than the rest of Frenchmen; they and their fathers had for a thousand years looked upon themselves as France, and on all others as born simply to serve and obey them. The idea that they could have a country in which there was no noblesse, had never presented itself to their minds.

But our Copperheads surpass both Jacobite and Emigré in everything that made either one or other base or contemptible. The Jacobite had at least one elevating sentiment—that of loyalty to the King,—and the King loved and honored him for it, and respected him as a gentleman. Our Copperhead has nothing like this to boast of. He is loyal to be sure to the Southern slaveholders; but his loyalty, far from being the loyalty of a gentleman, is that of a cur dog. He is devoted to men who loathe and despise him—flatters and fawns on people who spit in his face and abuse him, wags his tail the more vigorously and reverentially the thicker the shower of epithets that comes from his master, and is never so cringing and deferential as when they are moodiest and most contemptuous.

The Jacobite stood by the King, as in his eyes representing the nation, as the oldest fountain of authority known to him, and his devotion had nothing sordid in it. It could not be bought; and he would have died a thousand deaths sooner than have it supposed that it sprung from fear. The Copperhead, however, glories in being afraid. He flaunts his cowardice and imbecility under the nose of the whole civilized world. He confesses with pride that the slaveholders have beaten him and cowed him. He acknowledges that it is pure fear which makes him give them all they ask, and glories in it. He tells you with a chuckle what DAVIS wants, what LEE will have, and what BEAUREGARD wont go without; and calls on his neighbors and friends with all the smiling zeal of a London flunkey sent down stairs for his master's boots, to hand it over immediately. He will parade his shame on platforms every night in the week, and call it wisdom, and invoke the Divine blessing on it. When you talk to him of self-respect, he hears you with the air of a Turk listening to a disquisition on habeas corpus.

The Emigrés at least stood by their caste. Their cause they felt was the cause of all gentlemen against roturiers. They fought for the crown and for the church, for privileges and estates and rank, which they had held since the fall of the Roman Empire; for an order of things which had existed long before the modern kingdom of France had been dreamed of. The "French people," and the "French republic," were new and strange phrases to them; the "French noblesse" was something older than France, and prouder than the King himself. But what does the Copperhead stand by? To what creed is his faith pledged? To what order does he belong? What cause does he serve? None whatever. He glories in having no country, except it be the little community called a State, which, however, he passes most of his time in abusing, depreciating and comparing disadvantageously with South Carolina or Mississippi. He belongs to no order or race of men. He gathers to himself the base and degraded of every breed or country, and is never so much at home as amid the ignorant and degraded portion of the foreign immigrants. It is his special delight that he has no flag. He abhors the Stars and Stripes, and is always delighted when it is dishonored or humiliated; the Confederate flag he rather admires, and is proud of, but it does not belong to him. He has one quality in common with the negro, one which more than aught else has contributed to the degradation of this unfortunate race; it is impossible to insult him or rouse in him any feeling of resentment. You will find him in Paris and London, skulking around hotels frequented by Southerners, denying or concealing his Northern birth, or if he owns it, abusing and ridiculing his native place, denying his own Government to foreigners who are sickened by his want of shame, gloating over the defeats of his neighbors, and predicting their ruin and confusion. You find him at home, stumping the country in the interest of men who tell him that they must "hold their noses" when they talk with him, pandering to the base passions of the "baser sort," playing on all that is selfish, shortsighted and degraded in human nature, the love of money, the love of ease, the indifference to all moral ends, or aims, or consequences—always the very incarnation of that gross and foul materialism which made good and wise men everywhere, before this war, shake their heads sadly over the aspect of our civilization.

We must at this election not simply defeat this herd, but we must so defeat them that they shall hereafter slink out of sight. Like VIRGIL'S harpies, they befoul everything in our politics that they lay hands on, and they dishonor our generation in the eyes of foreign nations and of the next age.

Amusements.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC—OPENING OF THE SEASON.—A brilliant audience attended the opening performance here last evening, and extended to Mr. MARETZEK'S new artists the welcome which is seldom withheld from new comers. The opera was "Traviatore," selected by the prima donna for her debut. It answered its purpose thoroughly, and placed Mlle. COROSSI ZUCCHI in an enviable light before the public. We reserve our own remarks on the general performance for a more timely occasion. However desirable for the prima donna, "Il Trovatore" does not afford any particular facilities to the critic. The interest is spread over a vast surface, and does not culminate until the last scene. To write of this at midnight is impossible. It must suffice, therefore, to say, that in the first act, Signora ZUCCHI created a decided impression. She was called out and applauded in the heartiest manner. Her voice is extremely pleasant, and is managed with consummate ability. In the tower scene of the last act, the enthusiasm was unmistakable, and fully warranted. Signora ZUCCHI may be recorded, then, as an emphatic success.

The new tenor, MASSIMILLIANI, was not in very good voice, but in the trio of the first act he fired a note or two into the auditorium that electrified the audience, and in the aria of the third act (De guella pira) brought down the house with a tumult of applause. As Signor MASSIMILLIANI was called out three times after the fall of the curtain, it may safely be recorded that his début was also a success.

To-night VERDI'S opera of "La Traviata" will be played for the début of Signora BRAMBILLA, who sustains the rôle of Violetta.

WINTER GARDEN.—After achieving the rare dramatic feat of carrying through, seven consecutive weeks, a piece which had already run its full course at another theatre, and performed in another character for upward of one hundred nights, Mr. CLARKE may be fairly said to have established his position as the representative comedian of New-York. Last night he furnished additional claim to this title by his representation of Dromio, in SHAKESPEARE'S "Comedy of Errors." If an engraver were, to transfer him as Dromio in attitude and expression, no lover of SHAKESPEARE could fail, for a moment, to recognize the fidelity of the picture. He wears all the gay, mulatto-looking, quick-appearance which we associate with the Sicilian slave. All through he created a link between himself and his audience, which was full of pleasant incident and amusement, and the unraveling of all the merry mistakes convulsed the house with laughter. At this late hour, we are compelled to reserve a more detailed criticism, and merely content ourselves with saying that the revival was received with enthusiastic favor by a full and fashionable audience; that the characters were generally well sustained, the dresses new and handsome, and the scenery and mounting of the piece as remarkable for their excellence as during the past few years they have been for the opposite.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Dispatches to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Oct. 3.

MR. BLAIR'S STATEMENT ABOUT GEN. M'CLELLAN.

There is authority for saying that there is no foundation in fact for the statement made by Mr. BLAIR in his late speech in New-York, that an attempt was concerted between the President and Gen. GRANT to bring back Gen. MCCLELLAN as an adjunct to the latter in the field. On the contrary, if any such proposition was made, it was done gratuitously by Mr. BLAIR, Sen., without consultation with, or knowledge of either Mr. LINCOLN or Gen. GRANT. Such a mission, if any was undertaken, was created by Mr. BLAIR upon his own motion, and his ambassadorship was self-constituted.

REBELS DIGGING THE BODIES OF DEAD SOLDIERS.

It has been ascertained by Col. WELLS, Provost-Marshal of the Southern defences of Washington, that the rebels have been for some time busily engaged in digging up dead bodies on the battle-fields of the Wilderness, and stripping off the clothing to be sold for rags. It had been known that trains were running from Richmond to a point a few miles below Fredericksburgh, and much speculation arose upon the probable object of railroad operations in that vicinity. It turns out that these trains are run for the purpose of transporting to Richmond the debris of the Wilderness battles, old iron, bags, etc.

We learn that Union and rebel bodies are both exhumed by these jackals and hyenas, and their garments stolen. The business of these trains is directed by commissioned officers of the rebel army.

CHAPIN'S BLUFF.

The impression which prevails that Gen. GRANT holds Chapin's Bluff, and that Fort Darling is flanked, is incorrect. Our forces have taken from the rebels and hold a line of works on Chapin's Farm, which is below the Bluff, and has probably been confounded with it in printed reports.

THE NEW LOAN.

The new six per cent. Gold Interest-bearing loan, amounting to forty millions of dollars, just offered by Secretary FESSENDEN, is attracting considerable attention, and will be taken up with great eagerness at a considerable premium. It is attracting much competition. Receipts for par subscriptions to the ten-forty and seven-thirty loans continue constant, ranging from half a million to one million per day. These loans, with the proceeds of the internal revenue averaging three-quarters of a million per day, will enable the Secretary of the Treasury to pay the expenses of the Government without any further inflation of the currency by the issue of legal-tenders, except six per cent. compound interest notes, which are now issued at the rate of a quarter of a million per day, and being immediately absorbed as an investment, cannot in any way be considered as swelling the volume of the currency.

THE PRESIDENT'S SUBSTITUTE.

This morning, JOHN S. STAPLES, President LINCOLN'S substitute, was mustered into service, and afterward presented to the President as his representative in the army for the ensuing year, by the Provost-Marshal-General.

THE CONVENTION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND ECUADOR.

Notice has been given that the commission provided for by the Convention of November 25, 1862, between the United States and Ecuador, for the mutual adjustment of claims, was duly organized at the city of Guayaquil on the 18th day of August last; and that said commission will continue in session for the period of twelve months from that date. All citizens of the United States having claims upon Ecuador are notified to appear in person, or by attorney, and present proofs in support of their claims, and proofs with the Secretary of the Commission, SEÑOR CRESCENTE MEDINA, in Guayquil, in the Republic of Ecuador. Claims which shall not be presented to the Commission within the twelve months it remains in existence, will be disregarded by both Governments and considered invalid.

DEATHS OF NEW-YORK SOLDIERS REPORTED TO DATE.

John Odlkirk, Co. E, 8th Artillery; M. S. Hodekins, Co. A, 14th Artillery; Michael Moran, Co. C, 6th Artillery; Francis Koehler, Co. I, 39th Infantry; Henry Daniels, Co. M, 50th Engineers; Wm. W. Bowman, Co. K, 50th Engineers; John Peck, Co. I, 8th Cavalry.

Dispatches to the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Oct. 3.

LOAN SUBSCRIPTIONS.

The subscriptions to the seven-thirty loan reported to the Treasury Department to-day, amount to $1,086,700, and for the last two days $1,902,000.

CONTRACTS AWARDED.

The contract for supplying stationery and blank books to the House of Representatives, has been awarded to Messrs. PHILIPS & SOLOMONS, of Washington.

TAKING SOLDIER'S VOTES.

It is understood that orders will soon be issued, under proper authority, for taking the soldier's votes for President and Vice-President, in the armies. The details have not yet transpired, but it is believed that persons will be empowered to receive the votes at the various divisions in the absence of speech-making harangues and other open electioneering.

THE PUBLIC DEBT.

The statement issued from the Treasury Department this evening, exhibiting the condition of the public debt, shows a considerable increase within the past month, which is mainly due to the fact that the Secretary of the Treasury has thought it right and just that the entire arrearage due for military service in the army and navy should be paid up to the beginning of this month. Some of these payments have been long delayed, and they involved an expenditure of about $75,000,000. The whole amount being provided for and included in this statement, future ones will consequently show a comparatively small increase of the debt. The recapitulation on the 30th of Sept. is: Debt bearing interest, $923,085,941 80; interest, $54,668,445 70; debt bearing interest in lawful money, $564,585,874 66; interest, $27,170,197 42; debt on which interest has ceased, $356,970 09; debt bearing no interest, $467,944,929 71, making the amount outstanding, $1,955,973,716 46 and the interest both in coin and currency, $81,778,643 12.

The above statement as contrasted with that exhibiting the public debt on August 30th, shows an increase of the principal of about seventy-seven and a half millions, and of interest, $4,301,531

The unpaid requisitions Aug. 30, were nearly $79,000,000, and the amount in the treasury $17,190,000. The unpaid requisitions Sept. 30, were $34,641,000, and the amount in the treasury $24,359,400. The amount outstanding of the July 17 and Aug. 5, 1861, six per cent. bonds exchanged for seven-thirties, is $114,537,300, or an increase for the past month of $46,137,000. The July 17, 1861, seven-thirty three year notes have been decreased from $71,600,000 to $25,410,000, and the six per cent. bonds of March 3, 1863, increased from $43,258,000 to $73,922,000 since the 30th of August last. The March 1st, 1862, six per cent. Certificates of Indebtedness have been increased from $203,037,000 to nearly $220,000,000. The statement also shows that of the whole issue of $150,000,000 of two years' Notes, with five per cent. interest, under the act of March 3, 1863, the amount, less withdrawn and destroyed, or ready to be destroyed, is $85,137,750; leaving $65,862,250 in circulation. The Fractional Currency has been increased $167,000.

PORTRAIT OF ADMIRAL FARRAGUT.—An admirably engraved steel portrait of the hero of New-Orleans and Mobile, has just been issued by DERBY & MILLER, No. 5 Spruce-street, from the hand of Mr. RITCHIE, the well-known engraver, whose series of portraits of American heroes forms one of the finest collections of the kind ever given to the American public. This series already embraces the portraits of Gens. GRANT, HANCOCK and SHERMAN, all of which are admirable both as likenesses and as works of art.

FRENCH FRUIT.—A choice assortment, consisting of 150 varieties of apples and 100 varieties of pears, from the celebrated nurseries of ANDRE LEROY, of Angiers, France, intended for the horticultural exhibition of the American Institute, but which did not arrive in season, is now open for public inspection for a few days, at the rooms of the Institute, in the Cooper Union.

THE CITIZENS' ASSOCIATION IN CONVENTION.—This evening the Citizens' Association held their convention and purpose nominating county officers. What they will do, nominate independently or select the best men from the nominations of the different parties made, is, as yet, uncertain. But they have a great power in their hands, one which will win, if discreetly used. Citizens are ready to indorse their movement; they have the "people" with them, and as they propose a reform, not in the way of men so much as in the way of measures, they have clear sailing if good pilots handle the helm. The association is already a power, acknowledged so, and if she will religously keep aloof from personal, political and entangling alliances, they cannot but effect all they desire. They had better not depend too much on the youth and vigor of the organization. Independent nominations can only result in defeat; good men are being nominated by all parties—let them in a selection from these be unbiased, unprejudiced, unpartizan in their decision.

MEETING OF THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.—A regular meeting of the New-York Historical Society will be held at the hall of the Society this evening. Two papers will be read; one by A. OAKEY HALL, on "The Ante-Revolutionary Criminal Record of New-York County," and the other by BUCKINGHAM SMITH, on "The Alleged Discoveries of Verrezzano in 1524."

CAMPAIGN DOCUMENTS.

The National Union Executive Committee will publish immediately a series of Documents in aid of the Union cause for the Presidential Canvass. They are not intended to supersede or take the place of documents issued by the Congressional Committee at Washington, or by any other Union organizations, but rather to supply a want which has been brought to their notice by correspondence from different sections of the country. They will be brief, and will relate wholly to the practical issues directly involved in the canvass. The following are now ready:

I.

Address of the National Union Executive Committee to the People of the United States, Exposing the Sentiments and Purposes of the Chicago Convention.

II.

"The Two Roads to Peace"—being the Platforms of the Two Parties, adopted respectively at Baltimore and Chicago, with brief comments on their points of difference.

III.

"Is the War a Failure,"—being a brief statement of Facts as to what has been accomplished by the war, together with the opinions of Gens. Grant, Sherman, Seymour and Dix on the subject.

IV.

"Who Shall be Vice-President?"—being a condensed statement of the political opinions and official acts of Geo. H. Pendleton and Andrew Johnson.

V.

"How the War Began and how nearly it is Ended"—with a MAP and statistical statements of what has been accomplished toward putting down the rebellion.

VI.

Lives of Abraham Lincoln and Andrew Johnson in neat pamphlets of 150 pages, with covers—prepared, the former by H. J. Raymond, and the latter by John Savage. [On account of the expensiveness of this work, it can only be supplied in limited quantities.]

Others will follow as rapidly as they can be prepared.

The Committee cannot undertake the distribution of these Documents to individuals. They will send them in packages of 1,000 or more to State, County or Town Committees, or to any organization certified to them as likely to make a judicious and effective use of them. They are intended to be put in the hands of candid, patriotic and well-meaning Democrats who seek information concerning the issues of the canvass.

These Documents will be supplied in all cases gratuitously,—those who receive them being expected to pay only the cost of transportation.

Donations of money that may be sent to the Committee for aiding this gratuitous distribution of Union documents, will be faithfully and economically applied to that object.

All letters should be addressed to the Committee, and all checks should be made payable to the order of the Chairman, Astor House, New-York.

HENRY J. RAYMOND, Chairman.
N. D. Sperry, Secretary.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

The Secretary of the Treasury gives notice that subscriptions will be received for Coupon Treasury Notes payable three years from Aug. 15, 1864, with semi-annual interest at the rate of seven and three-tenths per cent. per annum,—principal and interest both to be paid in lawful money.

These notes will be convertible at the option of the holder at maturity, into six per cent. gold-bearing bonds, payable not less than five nor more than twenty years from their date, as the Government may elect. They will be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000 and $5,000, and all subscriptions must be for fifty dollars, or some multiple of fifty dollars.

As the notes draw interest from August 15, persons making deposits subsequent to that date must pay the interest accrued from date of note to date of deposit.

SPECIAL ADVANTAGES OF THIS LOAN.

It is a National Savings Bank, offering a higher rate of interest than any other, and the best security. Any savings bank which pays its depositors in United States notes considers that it is paying in the best circulating medium of the country, and it cannot pay in anything better, for its own assets are either in Government securities or in notes or bonds payable in Government paper.

CONVERTIBLE INTO A SIX PER CENT. 5-20 GOLD BOND.

In addition to the very liberal interest on the notes for three years, this privilege of conversion is now worth about three per cent. per annum, for the current rate for 5-20 Bonds is not less than nine per cent. premium, and before the war the premium on six per cent. U. S. Stocks was over twenty per cent. It will be seen that the actual profit on this loan, at the present market rate, is not less than ten per cent. per annum.

ITS EXEMPTION FROM STATE OR MUNICIPAL TAXATION.

But aside from all the advantages we have enumerated, a special act of Congress exempts all bonds and Treasury notes from local taxation. On the average, this exemption is worth about two per cent. per annum, according to the rate of taxation in various parts of the country.

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as those issued by the Government. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties, or stock companies, or separate communities, only is pledged for payment, while the whole property of the country is held to secure the discharge of all the obligations of the United States. Up to Oct. 3d the subscriptions to this loan amounted to over $46,000,000.

AT THE
COOPER INSTITUTE.

A public meeting of the SOLDIERS' MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION will be held at the COOPER INSTITUTE, On WEDNESDAY EVENING, Oct. 5, 1864, for the purpose of considering and adopting such means as may be thought proper, to promote the objects of the association. All ladies and gentlemen who feel an interest in the cause, are invited to attend.
By order of the Board, WARING LATTING, Sup't.

A number of patriotic citizens having organized themselves into an association for the purpose of erecting a suitable memorial to our brave soldiers, who have sacrificed their lives in support of the Government in the present war, and it being intended that such memorial or monument shall serve not only to perpetuate the memory of the fallen brave to future generations, but shall also be made, by its great attractiveness as a place of public resort, the source of a large and perpetual income in aid of the destitute orphans of those soldiers and sailors, who having given their lives to their country, leave their unprotected little ones a legacy to their countrymen.

We, the undersigned, therefore, most heartily approving of the above objects, do recommend to the patriotic and benevolent of our fellow-citizens, to attend the above meeting, for the purpose of co-operating in the accomplishment of so desirable an object. Signed by

COAL LAND.—THE UNDERSIGNED HAS A lease of 2,200 acres of land, on very favorable terms, lying two miles from Petroleum Station, on the Northwestern Virginia Railroad, on which is a splendid vein of coal, six feet clear. Can be brought into market four cents per bushel cheaper than from any other point to this place, which affords a ready market for a large amount. There is a break of one hundred miles each side of Parkersburgh, on to the Ohio River, in which no coal can be obtained. A large quantity can be disposed of to steamboats, as well as the markets of Cincinnati and Louisville, and points below, avoiding the most dangerous part of river navigation above. Parties wishing a safe investment, with large returns, need only examine this tract and the market to find as represented. Would dispose of one-half of above lease on reasonable terms to any parties who would aid in developing the same.

The property of this Company consists of Petroleum Oil lands, in fee simple (located in the county of Venango, State of Pennsylvania) together with sundry leases of oil wells, which are for the most part actually producing at the present time.
The different properties have been selected with great care by competent judges. The interests (now developed) are producing $650 a day, or 4 per cent. per month on amount of capital.
The future prospects of this Company, on the further development of the property now in its possession, are incalculable. It is confidently expected that a dividend of 10 per cent. a month can be readily declared, when the several wells are finished that are now rapidly approaching completion, on territory which has never yet failed of production.
The books are now opened for subscribers at the offices of Messrs. T. KETCHAM & CO., No. 68 Wall-st.; Messrs. WING & EVANS, No. 74 Beaver-street (cor. Hanover); Messrs. J. C. DAYTON & CO., No. 107 Front-st., and WM. A. FOWLER, Esq., No. 1 Broadway.

OFFICE OF THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD COMPANY,
NEW-YORK, Sept. 29, 1864.

THE FIRST SERIES OF $2,000,000 Redemption Bonds, bearing 6 per cent. interest, and payable in 1890, have been exchanged for Construction Bonds. The Directors, by resolution this day, have decided to issue another series of $3,000,000, under the same mortgage, upon the road and appurtenances, which are offered at 110 per cent., in exchange for Construction Bonds at 120 per cent., making a difference of 10 per cent. in favor of the Construction Bonds.
This arrangement is proposed in order to relieve the holders of the Construction Bonds from the inconvenience of a peremtory call for the bonds as provided by the terms of their issue, but, in case the bonds are surrendered and the exchange effected in amounts sufficient to meet the requirements of the land sales, the Company will be compelled to pay off a further portion of the Bonds. THOS. E. WALKER,

Columbia College.

INAUGURATION OF PROF. BARNARD, AS PRESIDENT.

The inauguration of Rev. F. A. P. BARNARD, D.D., L. L. D., as President of Columbia College, took place yesterday afternoon in the chapel of the institution. The proceedings were of a very interesting character, and were witnessed by a large concourse of distinguished gentlemen, including many of the Alumni of the college.

Soon after 12 o'clock the company assembled in the Library and proceeded to the chapel in the following order, under the direction of Prof. PECK, LL. D., and A. S. VANI DUZER, A. M., Secretary of the Alumni Association, who had been deputed to act as Marshals for the day: Chairman of the Board of Trustees and President Elect; Ex-Presidents of Columbia College and Emeritus, Professor of the Evidences; Trustees of the College, headed by the Committee of Arrangements; Representatives of the United States, State, and City Governments; Regents of the University of the State of New-York; Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Trinity Church, (as the first and munificent patrons of the College;) Chaplain of the College; Faculty of Arts and Librarian; Faculty of Medicine; Faculty of Law, and others.

As the procession entered the chapel, a voluntary on the organ was performed by Mr. WM. H. WALSH. Among those present in the chancel were Ex-Gov. Fish, Ex-President Moore, Ex-President Chas. King, Rev. Drs. Dix, McVickar, Haight, Ogelby, Chancellor Ferris, of the University; Rev. Dr. De Witt, of the Collegiate Dutch Church; Rev. Dr. Spring, and Rev. Dr. Osgood.

The ceremonies were opened by prayer by the Chaplain of the College, Rev. C. R. DUFFIE, after which Hon. HAMILTON FISH formally inaugurated the new President in a happy address; at the conclusion of which he presented the new incumbent with the usual symbols of office—the keys of the college and a copy of the charter under which the institution was established.

Prof. BARNARD replied as follows:

"It is with the liveliest sensibility that I accept, Mr. Chairman, these symbols of distinguished trust, which the enlightened body you represent, the legal guardians of this noble and venerable seminary of learning, have chosen to commit to my hands. I knew too well the magnitude of this task before me to enter upon it without a profound sense of my dependence for support and guidance, and all that can make success a possibility, upon the Divine fountain of all strength and all wisdom. It is only in humble reliance upon the continuance of that gracious aid which has sustained me heretofore under responsibilities similarly grave, that I find encouragement to hope that my strength may here also be made equal to my day. There is something in the chain of incidents which has placed me in my present situation which seems to me remarkably to disclose the directing hand of Providence. A quarter of a century ago it was my privilege and my pride to count myself a citizen of this great metropolis. Suddenly, and almost unexpectedly to myself, I was called to lend such aid as I might be able to contribute to advance the cause of higher education in the great southwest. Buoyant with hopes and animated with the enthusiasm [illegible] I responded to the call. I found an inviting field I encountered large-hearted and [illegible] laborers. I was cheered with the encouraging voices of the intelligent and influential throughout the community by which I was surrounded. My proper life's work seemed to be before me, and where my work lay there I fixed my home. Of the more than twenty years that followed, their labors and their trials, their discouragements and their successes, it is unnecessary here to speak. It is sufficient to say that there came at length an hour which was freighted with the fruition of hope long and ardently cherished, and with the reward of trials patiently and willingly endured, and that in the same hour the arm of the beneficent government which had shielded me there as here—a government so beneficent and so mild as to be felt only in the protection it afforded and the blessings it shed around, was suddenly paralyzed. I discovered that the labor of my life had been practically thrown away; I discovered that my home was no longer my home, since rebellion, triumphant for the moment, declared that it was no longer my country. Oh, you whose happiness it has been to live where the glorious emblem of our national authority has never ceased to float upon the breeze, if it is not for you to know the anguish that has wrung the hearts of fervent lovers of their country, compelled to see that sacred ensign trampled in the dust. Nor is it for you to know the bitterness of that stern necessity which has forced such hearts to bear themselves from places made dear by the remembrance of many peaceful and happy years, from all the traces they may have felt of the earnest labors of life; from communities with whose interests their own have long been blended, and from friends whose many kindnesses have made them dearer than kindred, in order to seek a sky beneath which patriotism shall not be crime—to find an atmosphere where loyalty may be free to breathe. It was thus that from the scene of my ruined prospects, my frustrated labors and my disappointed hopes, I turned away, animated by one purpose, possessed by one longing, to find a spot over which the flag of my country might still be waving. I found it at length, and with it the security and the tranquility of mind to which I had long been a stranger. But, more than this, I have found friends, encouragement, honorable distinctions—chief among these last, the highest academic distinction to which any ambition could aspire, I esteem that which I have received at your hands to-day. And in expressing my profound sense of the distinguished honor, I cannot but be struck with the remarkable fact, that the spot to which by your invitation I return, after an absence so protracted, these buildings and these grounds are the very same which formed by residence—although then devoted to purposes altogether different, when a quarter of a century ago, I left this city for my distant Southern home. You have mentioned, Sir, in terms of beautiful and deserved eulogy, the illustrious names of those early graduates of the college, whose labors so largely contribute to the formation and to the adoption of the great charter under which our country, for nearly three-quarters of a century, continued to enjoy a happiness so unbroken and a prosperity unparalleled. The interesting and memorable facts which you have recalled to our minds, impose upon every one, who shall ever, in any capacity, be connected with Columbia College, a peculiar obligation to maintain and defend the heritage which they did so much to secure for us. I accept the obligation in its fullest extent; but for myself, I needed no new stimulus to this sacred duty. Next to the Bible, in my heart, I cherish the love of that generated instrument, in which is embodied the living principle of our national unity, and for one, I never will consent to hold any parley, or to enter into any compromise with such as flout its authority, until its insulted majesty is fully vindicated, and its unquestioned supremacy reëstablished over every foot of territory which its protection has ever reached—over even the smallest spot which its benign influence has ever made happy.

Permit me, sir, in conclusion, to thank you for the kind language in which you have addressed me; and to express my especial gratification in having received my office at the hands of one who has been himself so often and so worthily the object of the highest honors his fellow-citizens can bestow.

The President's remarks were occasionally interrupted with applause.

ADDRESSES ON BEHALF OF THE FACULTIES AND ALUMNI.

Prof. NAIRN, representing the several Faculties of the College, followed with an address to the President, who he welcomed to his high and honored office. He was succeeded by Prof. ANDERSON, who also delivered an appropriate address to the President on behalf of the Alumni.

INAUGURAL ADDRESS OF PRESIDENT BARNARD.

The President, on opening, replied appropriately to the address of welcome which he had received from the Trustees, the Faculty and the Alumni of the College, and then alluded to the reciprocally beneficent relations of religion and science—topics, he declared, were suggested by the new schools of science, as applied to mining, which the Trustees are about to open in the college. He aimed to show that science, in its legitimate tendencies, was favorable to religion; second, the religion which science favors is in its spirit a religion of love to God and good will toward man, such as we find indicated in the Gospel; third, warfare between them can be productive of nothing but evil. Scientific progress cannot cease, and religion is a necessity of every human soul, and the truths of both are the truths of the same God, and are both designed for the happiness and perfection of the same being. Science dispels superstitions, fears and terrors, demonstrates the power and beneficence of the Creator, and discovers the laws by obedience to which the progress of society and harmony of the world is secured. Holding these views of the relations of religion and science, the speaker commended to the favorable regard of all religious men to whom educational institutions have always been dear, the new school of physical science about to be opened in the College, in which will be taught the modes in which geological, mechanical and chemical science may be brought to bear in the development of the mineral resources of the country. Important as he regarded this school, in its relations to national industry, it was no less important in its educational bearings. It was but the precursor, he hoped, of other special and professional schools in the college, by which the necessarily limited courses of the Academic Department would be greatly expanded, and the amplest opportunities afforded for a thorough mastery of mathematics, physics, chemistry, moral and mental philosophy, philology, political science, national and international law, history, æsthetics and education as a science and art. With these schools in successful operation, Columbia College will become a repository of universal truth—a dispenser of universal knowledge, and a contributor to scientific discovery, and to new applications of the laws of nature to the advancement of human society. [Applause.]

The exercises were closed by the singing of a hymn written for the occasion, by an Alumnis of the Class of 1820, and the Benediction. The audience adjourned to the President's house, where a fine banquet awaited them.

Twentieth Ward Union Mass Meeting.

There was a largely attended and very enthusiastic meeting held last evening at the hall corner of Broadway and Forty-seventh-street. The Union men of the Twentieth Ward were out in their strength, and the demonstration was in every respect a grand mass meeting. At an early hour the hall was filled to its utmost capacity, and among the audience were a large number of ladies. Mr. R. B. BRADFORD was called to the chair, and the proceedings were opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. FOX. After a song by the Glee Club and the election of Vice-Presidents and Secretaries, Mr. BELL read an address from the soldiers of the army of Cumberland to the people of the loyal States. Mr. G. W. CURTIS was the first speaker introduced. He said, after some preliminary remarks, that for many years there had been a large, powerful, dominant party in this country. That party, properly speaking, took its origin in the year 1812, when Mr. CALHOUN came into Congress with the cry of war with England. From that time down to the close of the last Administration that party was of necessity a war party. The principle of the party had been "Our country right or wrong." That party fought the Seminoles in the everglades of Florida; that party, true to its instinct of war, stepped across the Rio Grande, and said, war exists in Mexico. That party sustained the war which Texas waged against Mexico, leading to the annexation of Texas: that party had always been a war party. Mr. CURTIS spoke at some length upon the nick-name the friends of Gen. MCCLELLAN bestowed upon him—"Little Mac." He wished to know if any Democrat present did not consider Little MAC, the smallest NAPOLEON that was ever seen in the world. [Applause and laughter.] The party says, "look at this little military gentleman—see the stars—all the buttons—is not this war." [Laughter.] Was this little military gentleman large enough to command the Hon. HORATIO SEYMOUR, the Hon. FERNANDO WOOD, the Hon. CLEMENT VALLANDIGHAM, who are so sedulously thrusting him forward? Is he large enough to hide Mr. GEORGE H. PENDLETON, of Ohio, who stands next to him and who is exactly of the same political stamp as Mr. JEFFERSON DAVIS.

The speaker continued at some length to speak of GEN. MCCLELLAN in a vein of satire, each hit being received with applause and laughter.

Mr. CURTIS was followed by Col. VAN BUREN, Lieut.-Col. ROBERT AVERY, and others, after which the meeting adjourned.

Union County Nominations.

The conference committees appointed by the Union Central Judiciary Convention and the Union General County Convention, to harmonise upon local candidates, met last night at the Union headquarters, corner of Twenty-third-street and Broadway. Messrs. J. W. FARR and WALDO HUTCHINS presided. On motion, a sub-committee of ten from each body were appointed to report upon a division of office and candidates. The committee retired, and after an absence of about two hours, reported a resolution to refer the nominations to a committee of six, to be chosen from each convention. Mr. CHAS. SPENCER desired to substitute a motion dividing the offices. Pending discussion on this proposition, a motion to adjourn was carried.

The County Conventions of both wings will, therefore, meet again to-night.

TAMMANY NOMINATIONS.—The Tammany County Convention met last night, and made the following nominations: County Clerk—HENRY W. GENET. Supervisor—JOHN FOX. Coroners—WM. C. GOVER, WM. SHIMER, ROBERT GAMBLE, JOHN WILDER. The Convention then adjourned, to meet on Monday, Oct. 10.

SOLDIERS' MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.—A public meeting of the Soldiers' Memorial Association will be held at the Cooper Institute, on Wednesday evening next, to adopt measures for promoting the object of the society.

A FACT.

One thousand and fifty-eight persons have had teeth extracted by the Colton Dental Association (removed from Bond-street to Room No. 19 Cooper Institute) since the 4th of February last, and have, with their own hands, signed a certificate that they were drawn without pain, and that the effect of the gas was pleasant. This certificate can be seen at our office. No stronger evidence can be presented of the efficiency and safety of the gas. Many declare it to be a real pleasure to have teeth extracted with laughing gas. We are using on an average one hundred gallons per day. Call and see the long list of names. It embraces many distinguished persons, with seven Editors.

DANNVILLE, Penn., June 2, 1862.

Dr. WM. H. GREGG—Dear Sir: In February, 1861, I was afflicted with sugar diabetes, and for five months I passed more than two gallons of water in twenty-four hours. I was obliged to get up as often as ten or twelve times during the night, and in five months I lost about fifty pounds in weight. During the month of July, 1861, I procured two bottles of Constitution Water, and after taking two bottles I was entirely cured, soon after regaining my usual good health. Yours, truly,

UNITED PETROLEUM FARMS ASSOCIATION.

These farms and interests consist of about 1,200 acres of oil lands in fee, in Pennsylvania, and also two leasehold interests, most of which are situated immediately upon Oil Creek and the Alleghany River.

They combine, as we think, much the largest oil enterprise that has ever been offered to the public. There are now some fifteen wells producing, and about the same number going down.

The present production to this interest is about 160 to 200 barrels per day, which, at $11 per barrel for 160 barrels, is $1,760, or $642,400 per year.

The entire property costs $2,275,000, and the present production is paying about two and a half per cent. per month on that amount, or nearly 30 per cent. per annum; and with ordinary success, the wells that are now in process of being bored (which wells will, no doubt, be producing within the next 30 to 90 days,) will double the amount of product, and perhaps increase it tenfold, or more. There is room on these farms to bore at least 2,000 wells, and the amount of oil that may be produced upon them is almost beyond calculation. It is a fact well known to oil shippers that more than seven-tenths of the people of Europe, as yet, have never used petroleum, for the reason that not enough of it has been produced to furnish them. And again, it is true that our Southern people have not been favored with it, which makes it very evident that there is no danger of obtaining an over abundance of it. It has already become one of the leading staples of trade, though it is only in its infancy. We propose to put this property into at least three companies, with a capital of not less than $5,000,000 each, or $15,000,000 for the whole; and we confidently believe we can make these farms pay one per cent. per month on $15,000,000 within the next twelve months.

It will be seen, that the parties purchasing upon the subscription basis, at $2,275,000, get upon the stock basis over six dollars for one; and as soon as we can make the production pay one per cent. a month, the stock will readily be worth par. Some wealthy influential gentlemen of this City have personally been to Oil Creek to examine these particular farms and interests, and we are pleased to say, they are among the leading subscribers to this purchase. We believe all who have returned express themselves highly gratified, and many of them voluntarily say, they regard one of the farms worth more than is being paid for the whole.

We most unequivocally recommend this enterprise to all our friends.

The maps and schedules to all the property are at our office, where we shall be pleased to show them to all who may desire to call, and will cheerfully give any and all other information relative to this property.—NEW-YORK, Sept. 5, 1864. WED. W. CLARKE & CO.,

DR. W. R. MERWIN & CO.'S COLUMN
For the
CHEROKEE MEDICINES.
Compounded from Roots, Barks and Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the Urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

CHEROKEE INJECTION OR WASH is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy.
Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat and pain, instead of the burning and almost unbearable pain that is experienced with nearly all cheap quack injections.
By the use of the Cherokee Remedy and Cherokee Injection—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed in male or female.

CHEROKEE CURE!
An unfailing cure for Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, and all diseases caused by self-abuse, such as loss of Memory, Universal Lassitude, Pains in the Back, Dimness of Vision, Premature Old Age, Weak Nerves, Difficulty of Breathing, Trembling, Wakefulness, Eruptions, Pale Countenance, Insanity, Consumption, and all the direful complaints caused by departing from the path of nature.

This medicine is a simple vegetable extract, and one on which all can rely, as it has been used in our practice for many years, and with thousands treated, it has not failed in a single instance. Its curative powers have been sufficient to subdue the most stubborn cases.
To those who have trifled with their constitution until they think themselves beyond the reach of medical aid, we would say, Despair not! The Cherokee Cure will restore you to health and vigor, and after all quack doctors have failed.

DR. WRIGHT'S REJUVENATING ELIXIR, OR ESSENCE OF LIFE.
This medicine is the result of modern discoveries in the vegetable kingdom, and is entirely new and different from any preparation known for the class of diseases for which this is intended. It contains no minerals. It is one of the greatest restoratives for the poor, debilitated, worn-down and despairing devotees of pleasure ever discovered. It will restore to manly health and full power those who have become satiated in the gardens of pleasure, and cause their appetites to eagerly thrill for the luxuries of life.

This ELIXIR cures Hysteria, General Debility, Palpitation of the Heart and Impotency. It restores mental power and the appetite, and causes the rose to mount the cheek of pale, and the debilitated man or woman to feel vigorous and strong, the young and ambitious blood to course through every vein, the nerves to become strong, and the fires of new life and vigor to reanimate the entire body, building up the constitution, restoring joy and life to many a sad and darkened fireside.

CHEROKEE PILLS.
FEMALE REGULATOR.
Compounded from pure vegetable extracts, and coated with the best white sugar—as easy and delicious to take as sugar candy—these "Pills" are intended to remove obstructions, and to insure regularity in the occurrence of the monthly periods.
By bringing on and regulating the monthly periods, they effectually cure all diseases and effects brought on by suppression, or those caused by the deranged female organs.

They cure Nervous and Spinal Affections, pains in the back and lower parts of the body, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysteria, Sick Headache, Giddiness, &c., &c. In a word, by removing the irregularity, they remove the cause, and end with it all the effects that spring from it. Composed of simple vegetable extracts, they contain nothing deleterious to any constitution, however delicate.

Ladies or gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, and we will in all cases frankly answer their letters, and give our opinion of each individual case. We prescribe no minerals.

Patients living at a distance need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us. We have treated successfully the afflicted in all portions of the world, by correspondence.
Parties addressing us should state the disease and symptoms, and the full particulars in regard to their cases, in order to give a full knowledge of their complaints, and, unless a cure is possible, we will not hold out inducements to them in order to sell our medicine.

We wish all to distinctly understand that our preparations are not cheap ones. We do not fill a quart bottle with worthless trash and sell it for a dollar; but we do claim that our medicines are far superior to any preparation ever placed before the
